cut U-shaped.

A new magazine has been started in New York. It is called Dress.

Col. Ludlow is going to ask Congress for $1,000,000 for Washington streets this winter.

Sheriff Kendall's recent raid on Col-row is said to have cost the State of Colorado $200,000.

In Mexico laborers get eighteen to twenty five cents a day, and are often paid in farm produce.

Washington is the best shaded city in the world. At present there are 63,000 shade trees in its streets.

Col. Hains reports that the potomac flat improvement has reclaimed up to date 461 acres of marsh one under tide water.

An Ossego (Mich.) man was saved from a horrible death by a rooster's crow, recently. He was lost in the woods and about done for, when the cock crowed, showing him the way back to civilization.

The first English newspaper was the English Mercury, issued in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and was in the shape of a pamphlet. The Gazette, of Venice, was the original model of the modern newspaper.

The famous Dismal Swamp is no longer used as a shelter for runaway negro slaves of course, but it is believed to be the hiding place of at least 100 white men who, for various reasons, want to retire to private life.

The American Cyclopaedia cost $500.
000 before a cent was made out of it.
Its maps and engravings alone cost $15.
000. Contributors are paid at an average of $10 a thousand words, but special articles command special prices, some as high as $500.

"Age Cannot Wither Her," remarked an old gentleman, as he gazed fondly upon the comely little woman by his side; "but frankly," he continued,
"at one time I was afraid cosmetics would." The silly little woman, in order to appear youthful, plastered her face with different varieties of whitewash, yclept "balms" "creams," "lotions," &c. "Yes," interrupted the little woman, "I did, until my skin became like parchment, and so plump and coarse." "Well," said the listener, "what do you use now?" "Ugh," was the reply, "nothing but common sense, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Common sense told me if my blood was pure, liver regulated, appetite good, then the outward woman would take on the hue of health. The 'Discovery' did all those things, and actually rejuvenated me."

Its thousands of cures are the best advertisement for Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

It is said that early in the war a woman from Virginia appealed to Mr.
Lincoln to return her slaves to her, on the ground that she was a Christian and had always treated them with great kindness, and that he replied, "I have a poor idea of religion that gets one's<sup>s</sup> breath out of the sweat of another man's brow."

A machine has been invented for printing postal cards, which turns them out completely from the roll at the rate of three hundred per minute, packed in bundles of twenty-five. One man can look after two machines.

The Leader Times pays out nearly $150,000 a year in salaries to its correspondents.
